"Whoever exalts himself will be humbled; but whoever humbles himself will be exalted." - MATTHEW 23:12 Jesus gave His life to serve, not to be served. Putting other's needs before our own needs is a sign of becoming a mature disciple, of following Jesus' example. Humility is really a sign of a strength. By putting other's needs first we declare to the world that we are putting our complete trust in God. When we align our thoughts and actions with God's plan for us, the result is joy and peace.

LEARNING MOMENT

Great Desires, Humility, and Peace

Humility is an abyss which attracts torrents of graces, which attracts Jesus Himself into a soul. ... The vacuum which humiliation makes in us when we receive it rightly is an emptiness which attracts Him irresistibly. He bends over the soul who loves its littleness and nothingness; He bends over it with an unspeakable love.

"I Believe in Love" by Fr. Jean D'Elbee
