Mass Etiquette: Things To Do And Not Do In Mass

Men, take your hats off. It is impolite to wear a hat into a church for a man. While this is a cultural norm, it is one that we ought to follow closely. Just as we take off hats for the Pledge of Allegiance, we do so in church, too, as a sign of respect.

“To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good.” 1 Corinthians 12:7 To receive the gift of the Holy Spirit you must open your heart and let Him in! Open your heart and be grateful for all the gifts God has given us. Regardless of your circumstance, God has given us all blessings. What we do with those gifts is our gift back to God. Generously sharing our gifts keeps us more “God-centered” and less “self-centered”.

LEARNING MOMENT

Humble Confidence

“Do you think you are a joy to Jesus?” ...is it not a matter of the most elementary logic that a father and his child should be a joy for one another? ...There are persons who are baptized, who are confirmed, who receive Communion, who are in a state of grace, who are temples of the Holy Spirit, yet who pass their whole lives on earth without ever having experienced this heart-to-heart relationship with their Father in Heaven, their Creator and Savior, in the happiness which comes from being a joy to one another. Is not the life of grace the beginning of eternal beatitude?

“I Believe in Love” by Fr. Jean D’Elbee
