MASS INTENTIONS: It is true that the person for whose intention the priest offers the Mass derives great personal benefit – it is good and praiseworthy to keep this in mind – but there is another and a far nobler view. It is that of the glory we give to God and the benefits we procure for our fellow-men, living and dead. It is God's will that holy Masses, with all their wondrous effects, be offered up continuously.

Join us for "A Magnificat of a Heart's Desire"! Becky is a cradle Catholic raised in Wahoo. After a year in the School Sisters of Christ the King as a postulant, God showed her that He wished to fulfil her deepest desires by instead calling her to married life! A busy mom of six children under 10, Church Musician, and co-host of the podcast "Go Forth with Heather & Becky", you'll be filled with Grace as Our Lord Blesses you through Becky's witness. ### Mass Etiquette: Things To Do And Not Do In Mass

Please be quiet while in church. Once you enter the sanctuary – it is not the time or place to visit with those around you. If you must talk do so as quietly and briefly as possible. Remember that your conversation might be disturbing someone who is in prayer, which is much more important.

LEARNING MOMENT

Humble Confidence

In your difficulties, in your problems, in all those things in your daily life which are sometimes so difficult, so distressing, when you ask yourself, "What shall I do? How shall I do it?" listen to Him saying to you, "Let me do it." And then answer Him, "O Jesus, I thank you for all things." And it will be the most beautiful dialogue of love between a soul and the all-powerful and all-loving God!

"I Believe in Love" by Fr. Jean D'Elbee
